All Menus are available at advertised times – usually 6pm to 9pm.

Bookings are advisable, although not usually necessary during the week.

Most dishes are suitable for those with a nut allergy, but we advise that you check with us first if someone is known to have an allergic reaction to nuts.

Similarly, if someone has a coeliac (gluten), or other intolerant condition, then please seek our advice before ordering.

We maintain a list of allergens associated with every item in the menu, including sauces, etc.

Please also note that our food is prepared in a kitchen where food allergens are present, and deep fried items may be cooked in the same cooking oil.
